Unit 15

Night Life

When night came, the animals in the wood woke up. Slugs came out from under stones. They were looking for plants to eat.

Hedgehogs came out too and started eating the slugs. Mice woke up and began looking for plants and seeds to eat. They had to be careful of the big, white barn owl that was hunting them. With its big eyes, the owl could see very well in the dark.

Some badgers came out and hunted for worms. Badgers have black and white fur. It is difficult to see them at night.

The foxes saw the badgers but did not go near them. The foxes were looking for mice and rabbits.

As all this was going on, you and many other people were asleep in bed.
